Fire, Fathers and Finding the Barbecue Tongs

June arrives with long evenings, gardens tempting us out, and at least one person confidently announcing, “I’ll just do burgers for everyone,” moments before discovering the barbecue has not been cleaned since last August.

It is also the month in which Pentecost often falls and during which we celebrate Father’s Day – which, when you think about it, both involve people trying to hold things together under pressure.

Pentecost is often called the birthday of the Church. The disciples, once frightened and uncertain, were suddenly filled with courage and joy through the Holy Spirit. Tongues of fire appeared above their heads, and they went out into the world speaking so everyone could understand them.

There is something wonderfully hopeful about Pentecost. It reminds us that God does not wait for us to become perfect, polished, or particularly organised before using us. The disciples were ordinary people: sometimes confused, often worried, occasionally spectacularly missing the point. Yet God filled them with energy, purpose, and courage. Which is encouraging news for the rest of us who occasionally lose our reading glasses while wearing them!

And then comes Father’s Day, when we give thanks for fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, godfathers, father figures, and all those patient souls who have ever uttered the timeless phrase: “Don’t touch that switch.” Fathers have many gifts:

- The confidence to assemble anything without feeling the need to read the instructions.
- A deep belief that all car journeys can be improved by taking “a shortcut.”
- The mysterious conviction that making the television louder somehow improves the picture quality.

But behind the humour is something important. Fatherhood, at its best, reflects God’s steady love: protective, encouraging, forgiving, dependable. Not flashy. Not perfect. Just present.

And that is one thing that connects Pentecost and Father’s Day: The Holy Spirit did not arrive to make the disciples impressive. The Spirit came to make them faithful, loving, brave, and present to one another. Our world does not need flashy gestures. It needs kindness. Patience. Listening ears. Encouragement. Someone willing to put the kettle on and say, “Tell me what’s happened.” That, too, is holy work. Work the Holy Spirit inspires us towards.

So this June, may we welcome the Spirit’s fire into our lives - not necessarily as dramatic flames descending from heaven, but perhaps as renewed warmth, gentleness, humour, and hope, and putting our trust in God, our loving heavenly Father.

And if all else fails, may we at least remember where we put the barbecue tongs!

Wishing everyone a joyful and Spirit-filled June.

Notes from the Office

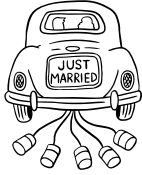

A Joyful Wedding Celebration

Congratulations to Olivia Irene Wike and Thomas Hugh Owens who will be married at St. Bartholomew's, Whittington, on Saturday 13 June.

We wish them every happiness and God's blessing as they begin their life together.

"Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

NEW

Monthly Prayer Meeting

Church and Community Centre, Andoversford, Wednesday 3rd June, 7pm

May marked the start of a new Monthly Prayer Meeting. This is in response to several requests for an additional occasion on which to meet together to pray for the churches of our benefice and the communities to which they belong.

The meeting will be held monthly on the first Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the Community Church in Andoversford.

The format is informal: a short act of worship and thought for the day, followed by extempore prayer.

We would love to see each parish represented. You may not have participated in an informal prayer meeting before, but you don't have to be a spiritual superstar to take part! God invites everyone, young and old, to become channels of his love by coming into his presence bearing the needs of others in our mind and on our heart.

Volunteers Wanted – Come Be Part of the Fun!

We're looking for friendly, enthusiastic volunteers to help at our Youth Club, every Wednesday from 4.45–5.45pm.

Jump into fun roles like running the tuck shop, serving drinks or helping cook delicious pizzas!

A DBS check is required (don't worry – we can arrange if needed).

Fancy lending a hand and making a difference?

Contact Vicky at colnriver@btconnect.com and come join the team!

Andoversford Parish Council News

At the recent Annual Parish Meetings, Cllr S Haines was re-elected as Chairman, and we are pleased that all existing councillors will continue to serve on the Parish Council. Whilst each councillor holds a specific role within the council, (Highways, Planning, Waterways etc) together we remain committed to supporting and enhancing both our village and the Burial Ground. Anyone interested in joining the Parish Council can get in touch via email at clerk@andoversfordparish.gov.uk.

County Councillor Paul Hodgkinson advised that villages with higher accident statistics are being prioritised for Gloucestershire's 20mph rollout scheme, meaning Andoversford is not currently included in the first or second phase. Nevertheless, the Parish Council will continue to take a proactive approach to road safety, working alongside the Community Speedwatch Group to support speed reduction and road safety initiatives wherever possible. With financial support from Paul Hodgkinson, we hope to see road line repainting throughout the village over the summer, along with repairs to the deep ruts on Station Road. We also continue to report blocked drains, potholes, and other highways concerns as they arise.

Following a request from a member of the Millennium Committee, it was agreed that an information plaque will be added to the tree planted near the village playground in the year 2000, helping to preserve its significance for future generations.

It is nice to see Brian Pash's memorial bench now sitting in place by Dales shop, where it provides a fitting tribute and a welcoming place to sit within the heart of the village.

A Small Act of Care

Our burial grounds and churchyards are places of quiet reflection, where respect and remembrance should come first. When litter is left among the graves, it gently disrupts that calm and can feel out of place in such a peaceful setting. These shared spaces rely on small acts of care from all who visit.

Please remember to take your rubbish with you and help keep these spaces as calm, respectful and welcoming as they are meant to be.

A Place for Everyone

Andoversford Community Church

(And no, it's not just a church!)

At the heart of Andoversford, the Community Church stands as more than just a building – it is a place where everyone belongs. Whether you're new to the local area or have lived here for many years, you'll find a warm welcome and a friendly face.

Our doors are open to people of all ages, backgrounds, and stories – it's a hub for the whole community, and throughout each week the building comes alive with activity.

From our lively toddler group, where little ones can play and parents connect, to our youth club, which offers a safe and fun space for young people to gather. Or join us for relaxed coffee mornings, attend community singing groups, horticultural forums or dementia peer group workshops; or simply drop into the Church Office for signposting and a chat.

If you're looking for a place to meet or work, we have a meeting room as well as a large, welcoming space available for group gatherings, clubs, and local initiatives.

Planning something special? We serve as an event venue, bringing people together to celebrate, share, and connect.

We are proud to be a space where community is at the centre, where everyone is valued, and where all are encouraged to feel at home.

(Oh, and there are church services too – once or twice a month!)
